

ICAO Rating Scale Training and OPI¹ Development Courses

Miami, Florida, USA

9-16 June 2014

Become familiar with ICAO Language Proficiency Standards

Learn what ICAO Standards mean for your organization

Learn to assess and evaluate ICAO English proficiency.

Instructors	Elizabeth Mathews	(Current) Founder Director, LHUFT Center Masters Degree, Applied Linguistics/TESL Formerly Linguistic Consultant to ICAO, ICAO Member, PRICESG, Director Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, Language Institute, Former Founding member, Aviation English Service.
	Captain Rick Valdes (retired)	IFALPA and IATA Representative to ICAO PRICESG United Airlines B 757 / 767 Captain, retired 23,000+ flight hours Accident Investigator, Safety Management System and aviation consultant
Duration	ICAO Rating Scale Training Course and OPI Development	4 days (30 hours) Monday - Thursday: 9-12 June 4 days (30 hours) Friday - Monday: 13-16 June
Description	Rating Scale Training Course	Participants will gain in-depth familiarity with the application of the ICAO Rating Scale, in accordance with ICAO Document 9835, with practice rating and scoring aviation English speech samples from ICAO and customized samples from multiple language backgrounds. Participants are welcome to bring own speech samples for verification. Participants will learn how to implement and conduct local and regional recalibration programs.
	OPI Development Course	Participants will focus on learning to develop, administer, support, and implement local and regional Oral Proficiency Interview testing programs.
Target Audience	The program is appropriate for anyone interested in applying or understanding the ICAO Rating Scale and the OPI testing process. Minimum ICAO Operational Level 4 English Proficiency required.
Certificate	Certificate for successful completion of course.
Fees	Rater Training: $1,000. OPI Development Training: $1,000. Discount for Both courses: $1,800 Early paid registration, by April 1 st , will receive 10% discount.
Registration	Contact Elizabeth@em4safety.com

¹ Oral Proficiency Interview Testing